COUNT NUMBER ELEVEN

Second Degree Burglary – Dwelling

§ 18-4-203(1),(2)(a) (F3)

([REDACTED] Denver)

On or about May 28, 2010, in the State of Colorado, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly broke an entrance into, entered, or remained unlawfully after a lawful or unlawful entry in the dwelling of [REDACTED], located at [REDACTED] Denver, Colorado, with the intent to commit therein the crime of Theft; in violation of section 18-4-203(1),(2)(a), C.R.S.

Facts that support the offenses set forth in Counts One, Two, Three, Four, Five, Six, Seven, Eight, Nine, Ten and Eleven are as follow:

On approximately April 26, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Colorado Springs, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation and asked for a drink of water. Erik Burt entered a bedroom in the home where [REDACTED] was resting. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, the [REDACTED] discovered their safe was stolen. The safe contained approximately $5,000 cash, insurance documents, birth certificates, savings bonds and/or United States collector coins. Additionally, a Chase credit card was stolen from [REDACTED] purse. The total value of the items stolen was estimated at approximately $30,000. The safe, containing only an insurance renewal policy, was subsequently recovered on April 29, 2010, at a car wash in Lakewood, Colorado.

On approximately April 28, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Lakewood, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, [REDACTED] found her jewelry cases open on her bed and realized that three rings were stolen.

On approximately April 29, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter his home at [REDACTED] Strasburg, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, [REDACTED] found his dresser open and a drawer missing. Approximately $2,600 cash and collectors coins were stolen. A photo and empty coin holders were subsequently recovered in Byers, Colorado.

On approximately April 29, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] and/or [REDACTED] to let them enter their home at [REDACTED], Lincoln County, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick attempted to distract the [REDACTED] with conversation so that Erik Burt could steal items from the home. Erik Burt was not allowed to access any rooms out of the [REDACTED] sight, so Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the residence without stealing anything.

On approximately May 3, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let Erik Burt enter her home at [REDACTED] Denver, Colorado. Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom, and claimed he did not feel well. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, [REDACTED] found the dresser drawers in both bedrooms disturbed, and jewelry was stolen.

Between and including May 3, 2010 to May 4, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter their home at [REDACTED] Denver, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom, claiming he was not feeling well. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation and went into the kitchen. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, [REDACTED] daughter discovered that the dresser drawers had been disturbed, and that jewelry and assorted World War II service medals were stolen. The value of the jewelry was approximately $300.

On approximately May 5, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Lakewood, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation and asked for a drink of water. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the home, [REDACTED] discovered that jewelry was stolen.

On approximately May 5, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Golden, Colorado, so that Erik Burt could use the bathroom. [REDACTED] husband, [REDACTED], also resides at the home. Once inside the [REDACTED] home, Erik Burt walked toward the bathroom while Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation. [REDACTED] heard a thump on the carpet, and shortly thereafter Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home. Subsequently, [REDACTED] found her jewelry box drawer on the floor in the bedroom, and determined that a lot of jewelry and some money was stolen.

On approximately May 6, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Arvada, Colorado. Javon Ristick asked if Erik Burt could enter the residence to use the bathroom. Once inside, Erik Burt walked toward the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation and asked for a drink of water so that Erik Burt could steal items from the home. Erik Burt was unable to steal anything, so Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] residence.

On approximately May 28, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt convinced [REDACTED] to let them enter her home at [REDACTED] Denver, Colorado. Once inside, Erik Burt asked to use the bathroom. Meanwhile, Javon Ristick distracted [REDACTED] with conversation. After Javon Ristick and Erik Burt left the [REDACTED] home, [REDACTED] discovered that jewelry valued at approximately $13,000 was stolen.

COUNT NUMBER TWELVE

Criminal Impersonation

§ 18-5-113(1)(e) (F6)

On or about June 1, 2010, within the State of Colorado, Javon Ristick unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly assumed a false or fictitious identity or capacity, namely: Chrystal Bell, and in such identity or capacity did an act with intent to unlawfully gain a benefit for herself or another or to injure or defraud another; in violation of section 18-5-113(1)(e), C.R.S.

Facts that support the offense set forth in Count Twelve are set forth after Count Thirteen, and are fully incorporated by reference as if set forth herein.

COUNT NUMBER THIRTEEN

Criminal Impersonation

§ 18-5-113(1)(e) (F6)

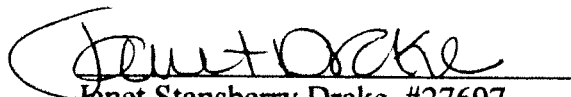

On or about June 1, 2010, within the State of Colorado, Erik Burt unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly assumed a false or fictitious identity or capacity, namely: Joshua Skippy Stanley, and in such identity or capacity did an act with intent to unlawfully gain a benefit for himself or another or to injure or defraud another; in violation of section 18-5-113(1)(e), C.R.S.

Facts that support the offenses set forth in Counts Twelve and Thirteen are the following:

On or about June 1, 2010, Javon Ristick and Erik Burt were traveling in a motor vehicle at approximately I-70 and W. Colfax Avenue in Lakewood, Colorado. Lakewood Police officers stopped the subject vehicle, and subsequently asked Javon Ristick and Erik Burt to identify themselves. Javon Ristick told police officers her name was Chrystal Bell. Erik Burt told police officers his name was Joshua Skippy Stanley. On approximately June 2, 2010, Lakewood Police determined that Joshua Skippy Stanley was actually Erik Burt, and that Erik Burt had two outstanding felony warrants. Javon Ristick confessed during an interview that Chrystal Bell was her sister's name, and admitted that Erik Burt used his nephew's name when they were stopped by Lakewood Police. Javon Ristick stated that she used a false identity because she had an outstanding warrant in California.

Dated this 27th day of October 2011.
